HONGHONG, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1893. Ir is not often that 'the bicycle fiend -- or 'the cad on cators,' as he was dubbed early in his career by a home journalmakes himself obnoxious in Hongkong. This is a blessing for which we may be truly thankful, for our busy narrow streets are not suited for ' the scorcher' showing off: his fast pedaling. But if the stoody increases in the number of 'safeties' is to continue, the example set by home municipalities will have to be followed and something done to keep the evil in check. There is an exhilaration about cycling, a pleasant something as one whirls through the air which is not to be obtained from a " matutinal ride on a bucking China pour 5.30 p.m.—Mosting of Diligentia Lodge. or any other similar form of exercise, that presents a strong fascination to the youthful enthusiast, and one can easily understand how, with better facilities for the exercise, young Hongkong would take to this form of outdoor recreation. As it is, it is rumoured that a few months will see the formation of a Chinese cycling club in Hongkong. While all forms of healthful amusement are likely to receive no check but rather encouragement from the authorities, and while European residents will welcome as a good sign the indications that have recently been given that our Eurasian and Chinese neighbours are taking enthusiastically to outdoor exercises like cycling, cricket and football, it is just as well to prevent at the outset any attempt to ride rough-shod over the privilegia On demand ... ... ... 2212 of others, and many in the community will approve of the manner in which Captain Heatings dealt with a Portuguese schoolboy named Adam Soares at the Magistracy Severeigns (Bank's buying rate) $ 7.23 this morning. Soares was charged with riding a bicycle in a furious manner in the O., public street, on 31st December last, to the danger of passengers. The evidence of Kwan Yau, widow, was that she was knocked ever by defendant's bicycle in Old Bailey Street and had her head hurt. She did not wish to prosecute, but Cap-THE HONGKONG DISPENSARY. tain Hastings very properly regarded the affair from the view of public safety, and he fined Soares $5, with the alternative of fourteen days imprisonment, and in addition ordered him to pay $5 as compensation to the old woman or suffer other fourteen days' imprisonment. He added that some accidents were excuenble, but this one was not. The defendant had no right to ride so fariously down a thoroughfare where there were generally a lot of children. Soares said he was ringing his alarum bell when the accident occurred, but the wonan who was hurt said she did not hear the bell. Captain Hastings might have told the defendant that the mere ringing of a bell does not clear a cyclist of all respon. sibility should an accident occur. It is no PARISIANS, be., &c., &c. uncommon thing for a cabman or drayman in a crowded city in England to shout to the podestrians to clear out, and then to Delicious Fruit Jellies. drive on regardless whother or not an accident may occur; but were all Magistrates to be as firm as one we remember who sentenced a cabmen to imprisonment for riding down a boy, and took the oppor-

THE BANKS AND THE RUPER. Calcutta, December, 12.-The Calcutta Banks have asked Government whether in the event of its being decided to close the mints, the reform would take immediate effect or whether a period of grace would be allowed: TRIAL BY JURY IN BENGAL.

Calcutta. December 12.-In discussing the trial by jury question, the Englishman points out it is 30 years since the experiment was first introduced in seven out of system to a single district. The article points out that the first cry was that in Bengal people were being deprived of their cherished rights. Then the fallacy was started that Europeans were affected, and finally the agitators tried to stir up Eurasians, Americans and Continental Europeans. As it stands, the article concludes, jury trial is not only a bye-word and a farce but a serious drag upon the administration of criminal justice.
